

1

Complete payment for the certification maintenance fee through the PATH Intl. online store or over the phone. Allow 3 business days for enrollment in the online CTRI credential transition.

2

Complete the online CTRI credential transition test with a score of 70% or better.

3

Possess current Adult and Child First Aid and CPR certifications.

4

Agree to uphold the PATH Intl. Certified Professional Code of Ethics.

5

Submit the CTRI credential transition form with a minimum of 20 hours of continuing education activities from the last 12 months as defined by the PATH Intl. CEU Guidelines.

Completed CTRI credential transition forms may be submitted via email to certificationcompliance@pathintl.org or mailed to PATH Intl., P.O. Box 33150, Denver, CO 80233

PATH Intl.

CTRI Credential Transition Process

A 5-step Process